DEGREE IN HUMANITIES

AIMS

Students of the Degree in Humanities will study the multiple intellectual, social, cultural and artistic facets of humanity. The principle general aims of the degree course are:

- 1) To provide graduates with a multi-disciplinary and polyvalent humanistic education with a broad methodological basis, which will equip students to manage, disseminate and transmit culture in general and will facilitate entry into qualified posts in a range of professional environments.
- 2) To produce versatile graduates who are experts in inter-disciplinary relationships, capable of understanding different cultural languages, particularly prepared to participate in an increasingly complex informational and cultural world, and permanently motivated to assimilate knowledge from heterogeneous sources.
- 3) To produce teachers capable of transmitting to our society cultural awareness and a desire to learn about, understand and respect the human cultural universe.

- Distribution of credits per subject type
- General description of the course programme

CREDIT STRUCTURE OF THE DEGREE COURSE

Subjects in the Degree in Humanities, each worth 6 European ECTS credits, are organised into semesters. Specifically, students are required to take 5 subjects each semester, to complete 30 credits per semester and 60 credits per year, for a total of 240 credits over four years.

In order to make the course compatible with other activities, students are allowed to take a part-time course consisting of 30 credits per academic year.

DISTRIBUTION OF CREDITS PER SUBJECT TYPE

Subject type	ECTS Credits
Core	60
Compulsory	144
Optional	30
Final Project	6
TOTAL credits	240

GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE COURSE PROGRAMME

The Course Programme is structured into 8 modules:

I. Module 1: Core module. 60 credits – 12 subjects

This module consists of core subjects in the area of Arts and Humanities, specifically, the disciplines of Art, Philosophy, History, Geography, Language, Literature and Anthropology.

II. Module 2: Language and Literature (compulsory + optional) 84 credits – 12 subjects

This module consists of 8 compulsory subjects, of which students are required to take 4 (30 credits), and 4 optional subjects, of which students may take a maximum of 2 (12 credits).

III. Module 3: Foreign language (compulsory + optional) 72 credits – 12 subjects

This module offers a coherent and progressive linguistic and literary grounding in a foreign language; students can choose between English and French. The module consists of 10 compulsory subjects, of which students are required to choose 5, and two optional subjects, of which students chose 1. These are distributed throughout the four academic years of the degree.

IV. Module 4: Ancient world (compulsory) 30 credits – 5 subjects

Comprising subjects from the disciplines of History, Philosophy and the Classics, this module is of a markedly multi-disciplinary nature and is organised chronologically, allowing students to study an extensive historical period from a range of disciplinary perspectives.

V. Module 5: The Mediaeval and Modern worlds (compulsory + optional) 30 credits – 5 subjects

This module consists of 4 compulsory subjects in semesters 5 and 6, and one optional subject in semester 8, comprising subjects from the disciplines of History, Philosophy, Art and the Classics.

VI. Module 6: The current world and heritage (compulsory + optional) 66 credits – 11 subjects

This module consists of 5 compulsory subjects, each worth 6 ECTS credits, taken in semesters 4 and 7, and 6 optional subjects taken in semester 8. This is the most complex and heterogeneous module of the Degree course, and its subjects are drawn from a wider range of disciplines: History, Anthropology, Geography, Arabic Philology, Art and Philosophy. This module is geared towards an in-depth study of the contemporary world, in accordance with the 21st-century Humanistic education that the Degree aims to offer.

VII. Module 7: Final Project (compulsory) 6 credits – 1 subject

Students are required to write and defend a Final Project. Prior to evaluation for the final project, the student must provide evidence of ability in a foreign language. Among other forms of accreditation, the minimum necessary requirement at the University of Alicante is to have attained level B1 of the European Framework of Reference for Languages, and this requirement may be raised in the future.

VIII. Module 8: Work experience (optional) 6 credits – 1 subject

This module offers students the possibility of replacing an optional subject with participation on a work experience programme, providing students with exposure to professional life.

LANGUAGE REQUIREMENT (IN A FOREIGN LANGUAGE)

Students who study an undergraduate degree at the University of Alicante must confirm a minimum level of B1 in a foreign language (a B2 is recommended) in order to obtain the diploma.

The required language level is in accordance with the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

The language accreditation requirement can be obtained previously or at any time during university studies. However, the language requirement will be necessary in order to be able to assess the final year project.

The different forms of obtaining such language requirement can be consulted in the additional information in this section.

LANGUAGE TEACHING COMPETENCE CERTIFICATE

Students who want to have a career in non-university teaching when they finish their studies are recommended to obtain the teaching competence certificate (Valencian and/or foreign languages).

This certificate can be obtained by taking specific itineraries in your university studies or by taking the UA teaching competence course in Valencian, German, French and English.

+info

FINAL YEAR PROJECT (TFG)

All the official undergraduate degrees must be completed by preparing and defending a final year project, which must be done in the final phase of the studies and be aimed at the assessment of competences associated to the degree.

The final year project must be an original, independent and personal work. The elaboration of it may be individual or coordinated. Each student will prepare this project under the supervision of a tutor, allowing students to show the received training content in an integrated way, as well as the acquired competences associated to the undergraduate degree.

In order to register in the final year project, students must comply with the requirements established in the "Regulations for continuation studies for students registered in undergraduate degrees at the University of Alicante". Among the requirements established to be able to register in the final year project, a minimum of 168 credits must be passed in undergraduate degrees with a total of 240 credits, and a minimum of 228 credits in undergraduate degrees with a total of 300 credits or more.

In order for the final year project to be assessed, a B1 level of a foreign language (B2 is recommended) must be confirmed.

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

The professional profile of the Degree in Humanities is geared, first of all, towards cultural and heritage management and dissemination. This profile equips graduates to devise cultural projects and initiatives, organise events, act as cultural consultants and promoters in a range of public and private fields, which include publishing, the audiovisual industry, business, etc.

This Degree is further aimed towards a teaching career in Secondary School in the various subjects of the Humanities' field in which students are trained.

Finally, whereas the Degree in Humanities provides a multidisciplinary and multi-purpose humanistic training, it is also meant to be an enhancing formative complement to improve the career opportunities for professionals in the field of the Human, the Social and the Communication Sciences.

Professions for which the degree qualifies its holder:

- Specialist in cultural and heritage planning and dissemination.
- Teaching in secondary education in any of the subjects of Humanities.
- Cultural advisor.
- Promoter of cultural activities.
- Intercultural mediator.
- Cultural technician in public and private organizations.
