OBJECTIVES

1. To provide students with an advanced specialist and multidisciplinary training, aimed at professional specialisation or research in the field of language assessment and literary culture in the Catalan language.
2. To equip students with general and specific skills which will enable them to apply their training to professional contexts related to their area of study.
3. To introduce students to the tools and knowledge necessary to develop their critical faculties and capacity for analysis and synthesis, in order to integrate knowledge and be able to reflect and decide on topics related to language assessment and literary culture, but also on topics of a social, scientific and ethical nature.
4. To equip students with the ability to transmit information, ideas and the conclusions of their observations or research clearly and unambiguously.
5. To introduce students to the tools and knowledge, and their applications, that will enable them to develop the skills necessary for independent learning and for professional practice or research in the field of language assessment and literary culture.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

According to the Regulations of the University of Alicante, the following requirements must be complied to have access to official taught Master's degrees:

1. To be in possession of a SPANISH OFFICIAL GRADUATE DEGREE CERTIFICATE or other issued by an institution of higher education within the EHEA (European Higher Education) that enables the holder to have access to Master's degrees in the issuing .
2. To be in possession of an officially approved FOREIGN HIGHER EDUCATION DEGREE CERTIFICATE that had been recognised as equal to the degree that allows access to the requested studies.
3. To be in possession of a UNIVERSITY DEGREE CERTIFICATE obtained in a University or Higher Education Institution of COUNTRIES OUTSIDE THE EHEA, without the prior approval of their studies. In this case, the following should be considered:
 - Non- recognised degree certificates shall require a technical report showing an equivalence statement issued by the University of Alicante (ContinUA – Continuing Education Centre), for which the corresponding fee should be paid.
 - Access through this way does under no circumstances imply prior official approval of the holder's degree certificate, nor its recognition for purposes other than studying a master's degree.

ADMISSION AND ASSESSMENT CRITERIA

1.-Admission profile

The applicant profile considered suitable for admission to this Master's Degree is as follows:

- University degree holders who have successfully completed a higher education course in areas related to the Master's Degree, or who have a professional profile related to the course programme (Language and Literature, Translation and Interpreting, Humanities, Audiovisual Communication, Journalism, Teaching or Librarianship and Archives).
- Professional practice in the areas of specialisation covered in the Master's Degree (secondary education, language and cultural assessment, language promotion, editing, translation, librarianship, etc.)

Applicants who wish to study this Master's Degree will be required to provide evidence of level C1 (or above) command of Catalan, both written and oral

Specific admission requirements:

Applicants who do not hold a degree in Catalan Language and Literature will be required to provide proof of a command of Catalan equivalent to level C1 or above (Diploma in Teaching in the Valencian language or Certificate of Proficiency in the Valencian language, issued by the Valencian Government, Intermediate Level Catalan, issued by the University of Valencia, Intermediate Level, issued by the Valencian Language Qualifications Board, or equivalent qualifications from other governmental or officially recognised academic organisations)

2. Assessment criteria

The Master's Academic Committee will be responsible for implementing the student admission procedure and for resolving any issues arising from the selection process.

Given that this Master's Degree primarily aimed at two different groups, two admission routes are offered:

- via a university qualification
- via professional practice

Pre-enrolment applications should be accompanied by accreditation of professional practice, detailing length of service, or previous university qualification, together with a full academic record.

Following the pre-enrolment period, if demand exceeds the number of places available, applications will be subject to ranking in order of preference.

In this case, admission criteria will be weighted as follows:

CURRENT

- Discontinued programmes

1. Timescale for implementation of the new Master's Degree Course

Academic year	Implementation of the Degree course
2010-2011	Teaching will begin on the Master's Degree course

The complete Master's Degree course programme will be implemented in one phase. This does not imply that those students who wish to conclude their studies on the present Master's course will be unable to do so: the necessary measures will be taken to guarantee teaching of the current Master's Degree subjects.

2. Equivalence Recognition Procedures, where appropriate, between the current and the new course programme.

To facilitate the transition from the present Master's Degree course to the new course programme, information sessions have been held the 2009-2010 enrolment period, to assist students with guidance as regards enrolment and enable them to transfer with ease to the new course programme.

Credits which have been successfully completed on the present course programme will be given equivalence on the new Master's Degree course according to the credit equivalence table shown below:

PRESENT MASTER'S DEGREE	NEW MASTER'S DEGREE
